High Interest Savings Account Fund

June 30, 2026

Investment Objective and Strategies

The High Interest Savings Account Fund (the "Fund") seeks to maximize monthly income while preserving capital and liquidity by investing primarily in high interest deposit accounts.

Risk

There were no changes to the Fund over the period of this report that materially affected the level of risk associated with an investment in the Fund. Prospective investors should read the Fund's most recent prospectus and consider the description of risks contained therein.

Results of Operations

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2026, the Unhedged ETF Units returned 1.0%, the Unhedged Class A Mutual Fund Units returned 0.9%, the Unhedged Class F Mutual Fund Units returned 1.0%, and the Unhedged Class I Mutual Fund Units returned 1.1%, after fees and expenses, versus the Bank of Canada Treasury Bills One Month return of 1.1%. The Fund invested solely in bank deposits with Schedule 1 Canadian banks. The Fund's net assets were $2,640.0MM as at June 30, 2026.

Portfolio Manager Commentary

The interest rate environment for Canadian high interest savings vehicles held steady through the first half of 2026. The Bank of Canada left its target for the overnight rate unchanged at 2.25% at every announcement over the period.¹ Two developments shaped those decisions: the economy's ongoing adjustment to US tariffs and, from March onward, the war in the Middle East and its effect on energy prices.

At the start of the year, the Bank of Canada saw no need to move rates. Inflation was close to its 2% target, growth was expected to be modest, and the economy was still adjusting to U.S. trade restrictions.² Inflation continued to ease through the winter, falling to 1.8% in February.³

This picture changed in March when war broke out in the Middle East. Oil and natural gas prices rose sharply, pushing up inflation risks just as economic activity was weakening.³ By June, oil prices remained elevated and the economy had come in softer than expected. The BOC expected inflation to hold close to 3% in the near term, and indicated it would look past this temporarily while making it clear that it would act if price pressures became entrenched.¹

Looking ahead, the forces that kept the Bank on hold remained in place at the end of June, with adjustments to US trade policy continuing and the conflict in the Middle East ongoing. Uncertainty surrounding both factors remained high heading into the second half of the year.¹ The policy rate remains the principal factor determining the interest earned on high interest savings deposits.

Recent Developments

In 2026, global financial markets have continued to navigate an environment characterized by elevated geopolitical risk, evolving trade policy, and shifting expectations for monetary policy. The ongoing military conflict between the United States and Iran has heightened geopolitical uncertainty, disrupting energy supplies and shipping routes and contributing to significant volatility in commodity and financial markets. At the same time, trade measures and related negotiations among major economies remain subject to change in scope and duration, while central banks continue to weigh inflation dynamics against the need to support economic growth. Together, these developments have contributed to periodic volatility across asset classes, particularly in sectors sensitive to energy prices, interest rates, currency movements, and global supply chains. The ultimate course and impact of these developments remain uncertain, and accordingly, the potential financial implications for investments cannot be reliably determined at this time.

Related Party Transactions

Evolve Funds Group Inc. (the "Manager"), a corporation incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario, is the trustee, manager, and portfolio advisor of the Fund and is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the Fund. The Fund pays annual management fees to the Manager as consideration for its services. Any management fees paid to the Manager are related party transactions, as the Manager is considered to be a related party to the Fund. The management fees are disclosed in the statements of comprehensive income in the annual financial statements of the Fund and are discussed in greater detail below.

The Fund is permitted to purchase, sell and hold securities of certain issuers that are directly or indirectly related to the Manager. With respect to investment in related issuers, the Manager has relied on the approval that it has received from the Investment Review Committee ("IRC"). The Manager complies with its current policy and procedures regarding investments in related issuers and reports periodically to the IRC.

Management Fees

The Manager is entitled to an annual management fee of 0.15% of the net asset value of the Unhedged ETF Units and the Unhedged Class F Mutual Fund Units and 0.40% of the net asset value of the Unhedged Class A Mutual Fund Units of the Fund, accrued daily and generally paid monthly in arrears. The annual management fee is negotiable for the Unhedged Class I Mutual Fund Units of the Fund. For the six-month period ended June 30, 2026, the Fund incurred $2,800,792 in management fees. These management fees were received by the Manager for the day-to-day operations of the fund, including managing the portfolio, maintaining portfolio systems used to manage the Fund, maintaining the www.evolveetfs.com website, and providing all other services including marketing and promotion.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses covered by Manager include but are not limited to: mailing and printing expenses for periodic reports to unitholders; Registrar and Transfer Agent and Custodian; any reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred by the Manager or its agents in connection with their ongoing obligations to the Fund; IRC committee member fees and expenses in connection with the IRC; expenses related to compliance with NI 81-107; fees and expenses relating to voting of proxies by a third party; insurance coverage for the members of the IRC; fees payable to the auditors and legal advisors of the Fund; regulatory filing, stock exchange and licensing fees and CDS fees; costs and expenses of complying with all applicable laws, regulations and policies, including expenses and costs incurred in connection with the continuous public filing requirements such as permitted prospectus preparation and filing expenses; and legal, accounting and audit fees and fees and expenses of the Trustee, Custodian and Manager.

4 This information is provided as at June 30, 2026, and December 31, 2025, 2024, 2023, 2022, and 2021.

5 Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses plus harmonized sales tax (excluding distributions, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

6 The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily net assets during the period.

7 The management fee for the Unhedged Class I Mutual Fund Units is negotiable and is paid by the unitholder directly to the Manager. As a result, the management fee is not included in the MER for the Unhedged Class I Mutual Fund Units of the Fund.

Past Performance

The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, income taxes payable by any unitholder or other optional charges that, if applicable, would have reduced returns or performance. The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the investment Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities of the investment fund. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart below shows the Unhedged ETF Units' and the Unhedged Class A, F and I Mutual Fund Units' performance for each of the financial years shown and for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026. The chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made in the Fund on the first day of each financial period would have grown or decreased by the last day of that financial period.
