INDEX METHODOLOGY

The Index is designed to measure the performance of technology companies within the Nasdaq-100, providing targeted exposure to leading U.S. technology firms. Constituents are selected from the Nasdaq-100 and weighted based on market capitalization, with an adjustment that caps individual issuers at 10% to help manage concentration risk. The index is rebalanced quarterly.[5]

Evolve Funds Group Inc. is the investment fund manager and portfolio manager. Evolve NASDAQ Technology Index Fund ("QQQT") is offered by Evolve Funds Group Inc., and distributed through authorized dealers.

The information contained herein is a general description and is not intended to be specific investment advice to any particular investor nor intended to be investment or tax advice. You should not act or rely on the information contained herein without seeking the advice of an appropriate professional advisor. The information contained herein is intended for informational purposes as a summary only, does not constitute an offer to sell any securities or a legally binding obligation, it is qualified entirely by, and should be read in conjunction with, the more detailed information appearing in the prospectuses found on the Evolve Funds Group Inc website at https://evolveetfs.com/

Leverage increases risk.

The unpredictable nature of the cryptoassets can lead to loss of funds.

Commissions, trailing commissions, management fees and expenses all may be associated with exchange traded funds (ETFs) and mutual funds. Please read the prospectus before investing. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns net of fees (except for figures of one year or less, which are simple total returns) including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any securityholder that would have reduced returns. ETFs and mutual funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

The rates of return shown in the table are used only to illustrate the effects of the compound growth rate and is not intended to reflect future values of the ETF and mutual fund or returns on investment in the ETF and mutual fund.
